Class History

We can't boast of a Washington, Einstein, or Kennedy in the class of '62, but Rome was not built in a day.

On a warm, sunny August morning in 1950, nineteen little girls and boys started their formal education at Hillsboro School. Those entering were Patricia Berry, Linda Kay Bowen, Marthie Capps, Thomas Leon Clements, John Owen Donham, Jon Merrill Downs, Jimmy Fay, Harry Lee Freeman, Benita Hesler, Jerry Holycross, Judith Ann Ingersoll, Karen Jahnke, Mikel Lewman, Sharon Lee Newman, Thomas Wayne Nickle, Joeie Ray Nine, Jo Ellen Parker, Ronald Lee Voorhees, and Sarah Lou Webster. We were fortunate enough to have had Miss Betty Bailey start us on the road of our education.

Throughout the next five years, we had Miss Bernice Hyatt, Mr. Everett Clore, Mr. William Howard, and Mr. Lincoln Lankford as our instructors. During our Junior High years, we had Miss Thelma Ebel as our class sponsor. Within the first eight years of school, we were very pleased to have gained Tommilou Flanigon, Ronald Jack Wendall, Richard Dennis McManomy, and Mitchell Bray, and to have had them continue on the road of education with us.

In the autumn of 1958, we entered Hillsboro High School as "green" Freshmen. James Carlton Kingery and Robert Congleton were new members of our class. In October, 1958, we were sorry to lose Robert Congleton, but we were very pleased to gain Raymond Dale Smith. Mr. Edwin Hoffhaus was our class sponsor. Our class officers were: President, Tom Clements; Vice-President, Sarah Webster; Secretary-Treasurer, Tommilou Flanigon; and Rep., Jo Ellen Parker.

As Sophomores we received our columbian blue class sweaters, which we wore proudly. The officers were: President, Sarah Webster; Vice-President, Ronald Voorhees; Secretary-Treasurer, Jo Ellen Parker; and Rep., Tommilou Flanigon. Our sponsor was Mr. Edwin Hoffhaus. We were very sorry to lose James Kingery and Larry Francis Booe.

During our Junior year, we received our class rings, which we had looked forward to for many years. We exceeded our goal in our magazine sales, and we were entertained by the Senior class at the annual Junior-Senior Picnic at Turkey Run State Park. Mrs. Vivian Bryant, our sponsor, helped us present our play, "The Custers' Last Stand." We were pleased to have Patricia Philpott join us. The class officers were : President, John Donham; Vice-President, Ronald Voorhees; Secretary-Treasurer, Sarah Webster; Rep., Patricia Philpott; and Student Council Rep., Tommilou Flanigon. Our Junior year was climaxed by the much awaited Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom held in the Memorial Union at Purdue University. We'll never forget our treacherous journey home through the terrible April snow storm.

In the autumn of 1961, Patricia Berry, Mitchell Bray, Thomas Leon Clements, John Owen Donham, Jerry Holycross, Karen Jahnke, Tommilou Flanigon, Richard Dennis McManomy, Thomas Wayne Nickle, Sharon Lee Newman, Joeie Ray Nine, Jo Ellen Parker, Patricia Philpott, Ronald Lee Vorhees, Sarah Lou Webster, Raymond Dale Smith, Ronald Jack Wendall, and Jon Merrill Downs finally reached their long awaited goal - SENIORS!! We elected as our officers: President, John Donham; Vice-President, Tom Nickle; Secretary, Sarah Webster; Treasurer, Ray Smith; Rep., Tom Clements; and Student Council Rep., Ron Voorhees. We started off our Senior year by entertaining the Junior class at the annual Junior-Senior Picnic at Turkey Run State Park. Our first project was the presentation of "Constable Jerry from Fulton's Ferry." Then came our annual, the "Hiltosco" - ad sales, editing, and annual sales. The Junior and Senior classes sponsored a Turkey Supper and made a large profit to go towards the eight-day Junior-Senior trip to Washington, D. C., and New York City. We were very well represented in basketball, having eight Senior boys on the team and three Senior Varsity cheerleaders cheering our great team on to many victories. There were eight members of the high school band that played in their last contest and band festival. Choral Festival was also a big event to seven Senior girls, because to all it was their last and to three it meant Festival accompanists. But the biggest event to everyone was our graduation - Baccalaureate and Commencement. We were pleased to welcome Ryland Wrede to our class in January, 1962.

What can be seen in the futures of nineteen Seniors who are leaving Hillsboro High School and entering the vast and complex school of life? Power! Fame! Fortune!?! Perhaps - It's possible - I wonder -

Class Poem

Now we proudly present the class of '62.
"Please applaud, don't boo."

First on our list, Pat Berry, short and neat thinks dating Kent is quite a treat.

Next we have Mitchell Bray,
who always has something witty to say.

Tom Clements, a lawyer should be,
quite an arguer is he.

John Donham, our baseball star,
in the business world will go far.

Jack Downs, a slender boy, thinks water skiing is a joy.

Now we have Tommilou Flanigon,
who is always playing a shenanigan.

Another fellow in our class is Jerry Holycross,
for a girl friend, he is never at a loss.

Karen Jahnke, an efficient lass,
is very good in typing class.

Dennis McManomy, a handsome guy,
always has a mischievous glint in his eye.

Then there's Sharon Newman,
who at Purdue hopes to be roomin'.

Now we have a nice guy, Tom Nickle,
who is always in his vehicle.

A swell guy, Joe Nine,
hopes someday to have a gold mine.

Jo Ellen Parker, our Homecoming Queen,
at the ballgames is always seen.

Patty Philpott, a girl with a lot of wit,
always does her bit.

Raymond Smith, a real good "Joe,"
is quite handy with his yo-yo.

A good ball player, Ron Voorhees,
all the girls he likes to tease.

Sarah Webster, quite a lass,
is the smallest in our class.

Ronnie Wendall, who has dark eyes,
is one of our real nice guys.

Ryland Wrede, tall and lean,
with our class can now be seen.

Now is the time to end our rhyme,
to success we all hope to climb.

Class Will

I, Pat Berry, will to Pam Holt my ability to go with boys, providing she doesn't go with the same ones I did.

I, Mitchell Bray, will to Quinton Tooker my ability to play Varsity basketball, providing he doesn't get kicked off as I did.

I, Tom Clements, will my ability to argue with teachers to anyone who thinks he can win more agruments than I did.

I, John Donham, will my courage to take physics to anyone who knows what they are getting into.

I, Jack Downs, will my ability to go to Veedersburg every chance I get to Mike Carlson, providing he finds a reason to go over there.

I, Tommilou Flanigon, will my corny wisecracks to Rosalie De Florio, provided that hers are appreciated more than mine were.

I, Jerry Holycross, will my ability to be a reckless driver to anyone who's got the nerve.

I, Karen Jahnke, will my ability to drive to anyone who is allowed to have the family car more than I was.

I, Dennis McManomy, will my ability to play against Kingman to anybody who can get away with loafing in practice.

I, Sharon Newman, will my ability to be Varsity Cheerleader to my sister, Nancy, provided she doesn't get as aggravated as I did.

I, Tom Nickle, will my ability to be on the road to Leon Snyder, providing he can be on it more than I was.

I, Joe Nine, will my ability to be in the office to my brother, Don, provided he doesn't go in as much as I did.

I, Jo Ellen Parker, will my good fortune to be a Varsity Cheerleader for four years to my sister, Cheryl, provided she has as much fun as I did.

I, Patty Philpott, will my physics book to any girl crazy enough to accept it, provided she does not use it any more than I did.

I, Raymond Smith, will my ability to get along with Coach Fugate to anyone who is having trouble with him.

I, Ronnie Voorhees, will my brother and sister the ability to be in bed every school night, providing they're in bed by 12:00 as I have been.

I, Sarah Webster, will my ability to be Varsity Cheerleader to any girl, provided she hasn't the nerve to try out for the position until her senior year.

I, Ronnie Wendall, will my ability to sleep in study hall to anyone who can get by with it.

LET'S TAKE A TRIP TO THE MOON

Hello! My name is Fate, and I would like to tell you of my recent expedition to the moon and what I found there. After learning of my appointment as first astronaut to the moon, I began searching for my crew. During this time I chanced upon three hobos who were Raymond Smith, Mitchell Bray, and Thomas Clements. They were former astronauts who had orbited Venus and were AWOL on the same mission for three years. But in spite of this fact, I felt these men were just the ones for my crew since they had had some previous experience with travel in outer space.

After arriving safely on the moon, I decided to get some new articles of clothing which might help me to better adapt to life on the moon. At the apparel shop, which I later learned was owned by Karen Jahnke, I bumped into Sharon Newman, the leading clothes designer on the moon. Since she was the only clothes designer there, I decided she would have to do. Sharon has just received the latest designs from Paris. Jo Ellen Parker had brought them with her when she came to visit Tommilou Flanigon. They had a good time discussing their school days at Hillsboro High. Jo Ellen inquired as to why Tommilou was on the moon. She said, that after receiving her Ph.D. in Phonics at Indiana University she felt indebted to insanity, I mean humanity, to teach Sarah Webster how to pronounce encyclopedia, since Sarah was now a lawyer and should be well educated. Jo Ellen liked the moon so very much that she decided to stay and teach school.

Since I was only on a year's vacation I decided I should move on and see some other sights. I went to the Green Cheese Plateau (Oh yes! It has finally been proven to be green cheese.) and there was Jack Downs trying like everything to farm it. Jack stopped his work and talked with me for a while. He seemed to know about many of our classmates. As a matter of fact, Joe Nine and he were farming this section of the plateau together. Jack said that so far as he knew, Tom Nickle was the only one of our class who had not yet made a trip to the moon. Tom was still in Egypt trying to sell the Great Pyramid to any gullible passerby.

That night I went to the Moon Derby Night Club, owned by Ryland Wrede, and who but Patricia Berry was singing there. She came over and sat down with me for a while. After a while she began talking about the other people who also worked there. One of them was Patty Philpott. She was Chief Cook and Bottle Washer.

The following morning I decided to visit a big missile factory which I had seen in passing the day before. I stopped at the gate to explain why I would like to enter and lo and behold there was Ronnie Wendall. Since he knew me, he let me go in without ever saying anything. I stopped in front of the main door to read a placque which read something like this: John Donham - President and Secretary, Dennis McManomy - Vice-President and Treasurer. I thought it would be fun to talk to these two classmates of mine, but when I went in I found out this was impossible as they were in Miami Beach, Florida, vacationing.

Since I had already seen most of my classmates from Hillsboro High, I decided to start back to my space ship. When I got to the parking lot where I had left it I searched for the attendant with whom I had left my space ship. He was nowhere to be found, but soon another attendant came to my rescue. This attendant was none other than Jerry Holycross. I visited with him for a while and he told me that Ronnie Voorhees also ran a parking lot. Ronnie's parking lot was located at Ghost Holler so I did not take time to visit him.

A few minutes after blast off I was sound asleep. It sure is surprising how tired one can get just visiting with old friends.

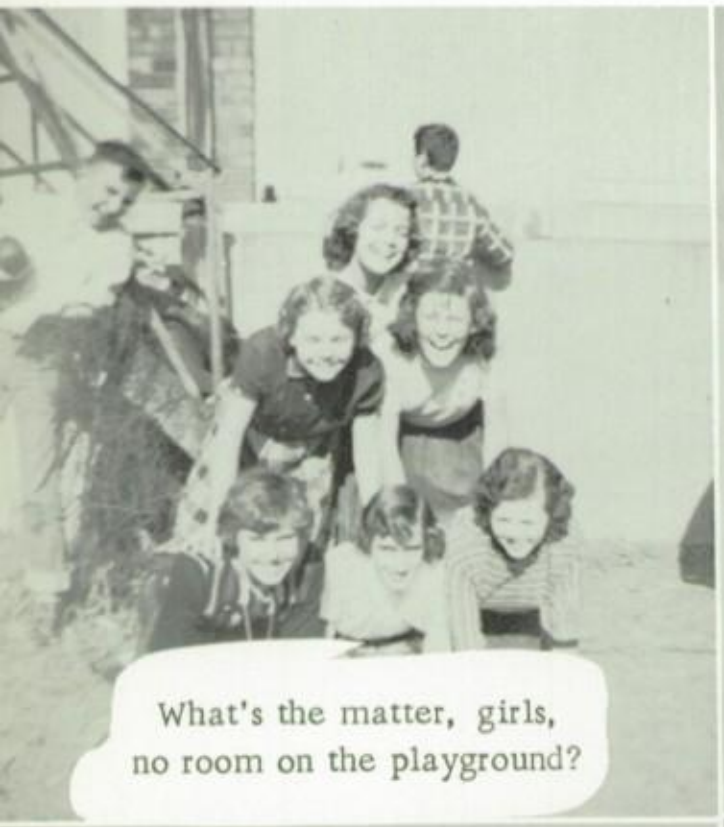
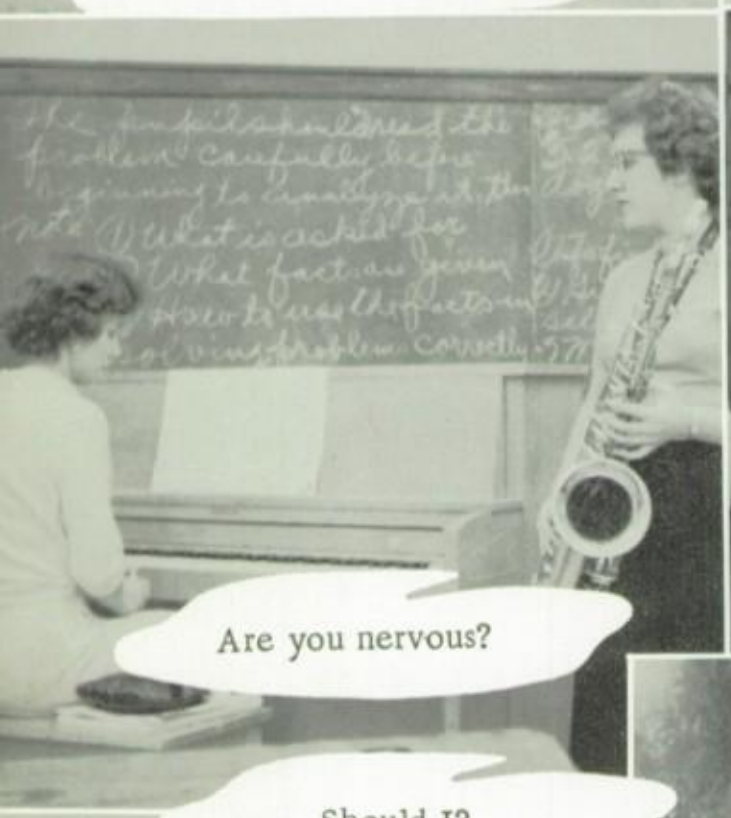
School Daze



What's the matter, girls,
no room on the playground?

You can't win them all

What's going on here?!?

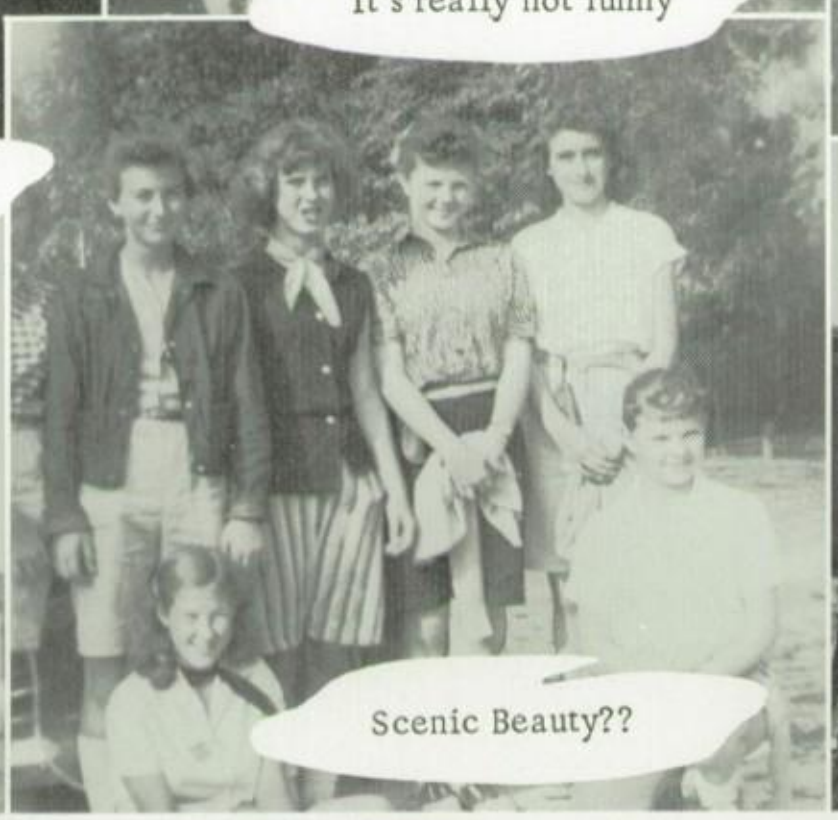


Are you nervous?

It's really not funny

Altogether, now

Should I?



Scenic Beauty??

Beware of the Judge!

Senior Beauties

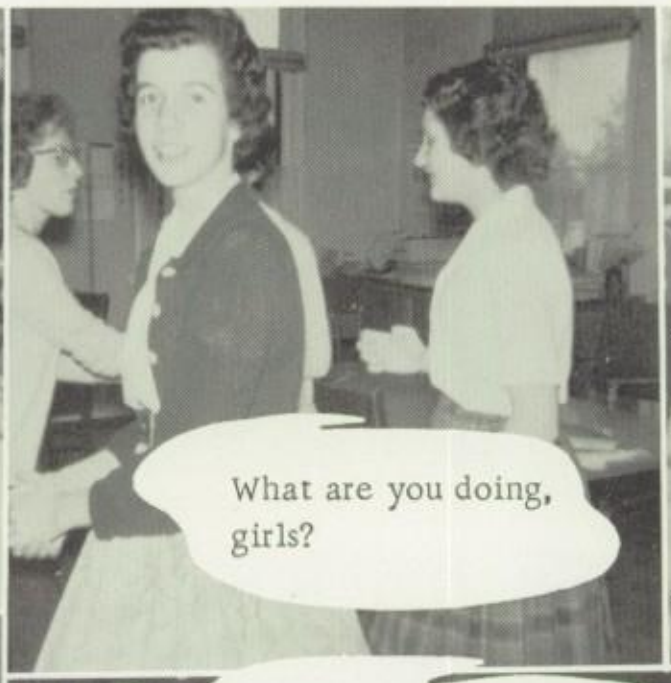
Posing

School Daze

Look at those gorgeous - trees.



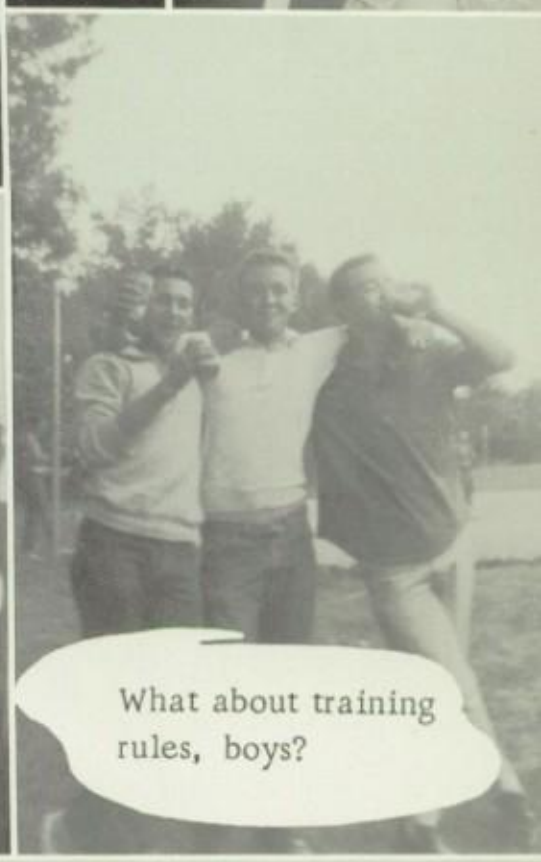
What are you doing, girls?

Relief at last.

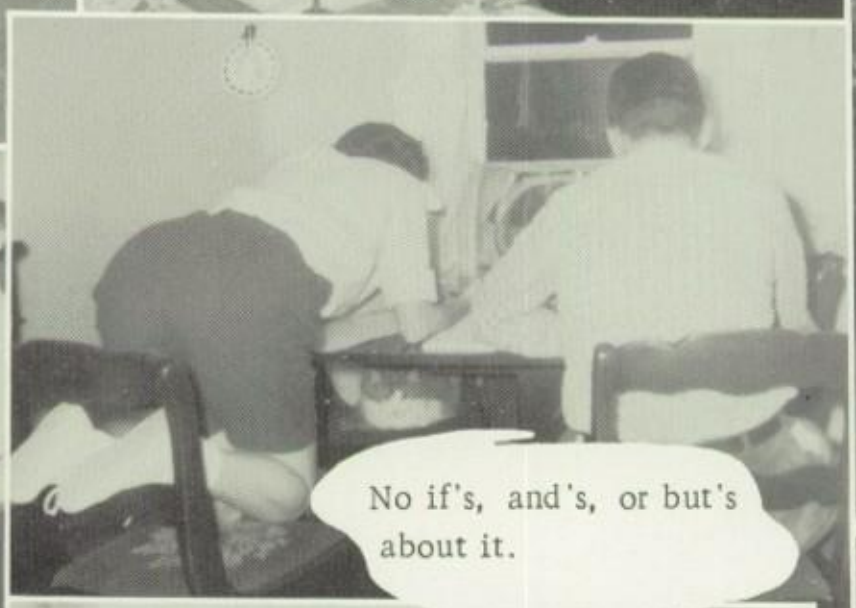
Don't just stand there. Do something.

S.O.S.

Anyone for a carrot?

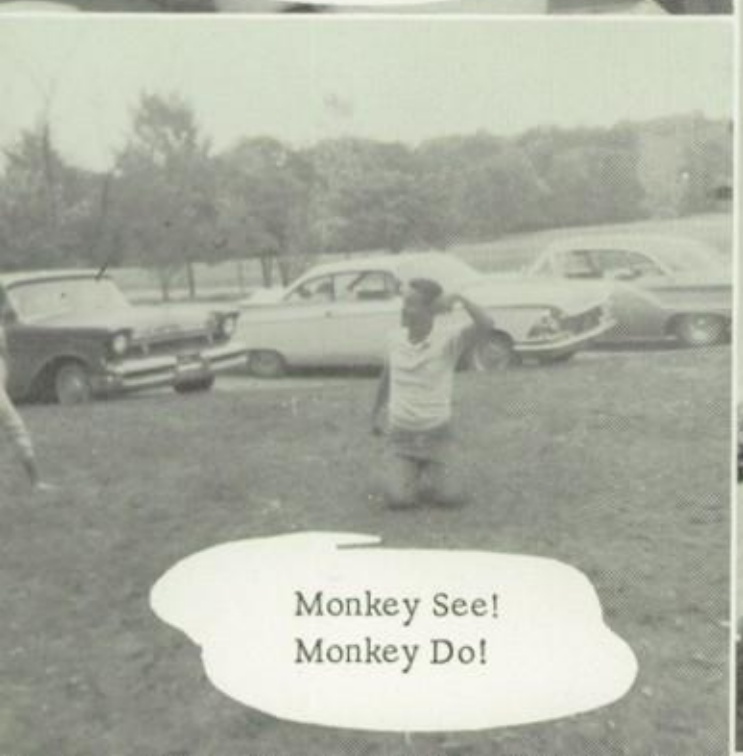


What about training rules, boys?



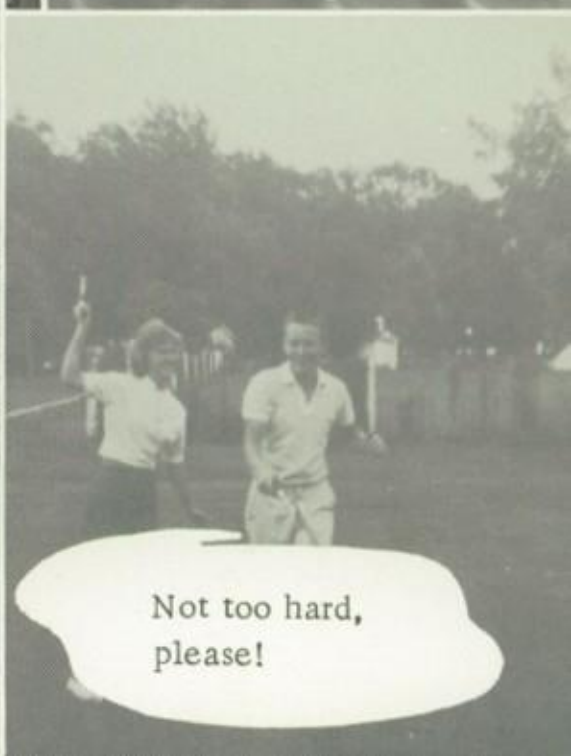
No if's, and's, or but's about it.

You are caught now!



Monkey See! Monkey Do!

Dig those long skirts!



Not too hard, please!
